Painting (all levels) with Mary Hubley. These are one-day workshops for oil and acrylic painters. New students learn the basics, while advanced students develop their technical skills. Walk home with a finished painting by the end of the day. Workshops include demos, discussions, individual attention, and gentle critique. Space is limited, so please register early.

Mary Hubley is an internationally recognized award-winning artist who paints full time in her St. Augustine studio. She spent years as a corporate illustrator and shows her work in major galleries. She teaches workshops around the country and has been teaching painting classes regularly in St. Augustine for over 6 years.

Please circle which workshop(s) you'll attend:

1. Jan 24 2019, 9am-4pm. Simplifying the Landscape

$99

We'll discuss techniques for creating more powerful images by painting with economy. We'll discuss form, value, color and how to simplify the landscape for a more powerful painting.

2. Feb 21 2019, 9am-4pm. Color in the Landscape

$99

Learn how to use color strategically in your paintings and develop your personal color sense. Explore temperature, value, saturation, and contrast to create a colorful painting that works.

3. Mar 28 2019, 9am-4pm. Painting Flowers

$99

Working with fresh flowers, we'll explore painting colorful still life arrangements. We'll address light, color, gesture of the bloom, and composition.
